

WASOGBAL 2011

Maastricht, NL

WASOGBAL 2011, June 15-18th, Maastricht,
the Netherlands

10th WASOG meeting; BAL 12th conference
2nd joint Meeting of WASOG and the International Conference on BAL

Multidisciplinary teamwork in sarcoidosis and other interstitial lung diseases

Nominees Dutch Pulmonary Fibrosis Society Award

for Excellence in Pulmonary Fibrosis Research in the Netherlands

Drs. Nicoline Korthagen

from the Center of Interstitial Lung diseases of the Sint Antonius Hospital Nieuwegein, the Netherlands

for her outstanding abstract entitled:

'Association between polymorphisms in the P53 and P21 genes and IPF' (abstract)

Dr. Petal A.H.M. Wijnen

from the Department of Clinical Chemistry, ild care consultancy, Maastricht University MedicalCentre (MUMC+),
the Netherlands

for her outstanding abstract entitled:

'Diffuse alveolar hemorrhage associated with variant alleles increases the risk of pulmonary fibrosis in patients using oral anticoagulants'

Drs. Liesbeth ten Klooster

from the Center of Interstitial Lung diseases of the Sint Antonius Hospital Nieuwegein, the Netherlands

for her outstanding abstract entitled:

'Mortality in idiopathic pulmonary fibrosis (IPF) on the waiting list for lung transplantation in the Netherlands'

www.longfibrose.nl